NO. CR19-199-RAJ

26 ORDER

28

At a status conference on October 22, 2020, this Court set a trial date of March 22, 2021, for the above-referenced action. Pursuant to General Order 15-20 and earlier General Orders of the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington addressing measures to reduce the spread and health risks from COVID-19, which are incorporated herein by reference, the Court hereby FINDS as follows:

1. In light of the recommendations made by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and Public Health for Seattle and King County regarding social distancing measures required to stop the spread of this disease, it is not possible at this time to proceed with a jury trial in the immediate future.
2. Further, as stated in General Order 15-20, limiting the size and frequency of gatherings remains critical to preventing serious illness and death from COVID-19. The continuing public health situation resulting from the pandemic

1 also limits the availability and ability of witnesses, counsel, and Court staff to 2 be present in the courtroom, and the ability to obtain an adequate spectrum of 3 jurors to proceed with in-person jury trials. For the foreseeable future, it will be 4 possible to proceed with only one in-person criminal jury trial at a time at each
5 of the district's two courthouses. A continuance of the trial date in this case
6 until March 22, 2021, is therefore necessary to allow the appropriate spacing of 7 trials.

8 3. As a result, the failure to grant a continuance of the trial date in this case would 9 likely result in a miscarriage of justice. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A),
10 the ends of justice served by continuing the trial in this case outweigh the best
11 interest of the public and the defendant to a speedy trial.

12 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the time between September 17, 2020 (the prior 13 date of the status conference with the Court) and the new trial date of March 22, 2021, is 14 excluded in computing the time within which trial must commence because the ends of 15 justice served by granting this continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and 16 the defendant in a speedy trial, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Failure to grant this 17 continuance would likely make trial impossible and result in a miscarriage of justice, and 18 would deny counsel for the defendant and government counsel the reasonable time
19 necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. Id.
20 § 3161(h)(7)(B)(i), (iv).

21 DATED this 23rd day of October, 2020.
